ORDER OF WORSHIP

WE GATHER TO BE GOD'S PEOPLE

Centering Thoughts: The new year has begun, the joy of Christmas is still speckled around us, and we are brought to wonder, “What next?” Commonly there is a moment of hope filled wonder, which quickly degrades into more of the same. Because change is hard. Anyone who has tried, knows this to be true. And yet, that wondering of hope filled possibility is the treasure reminding us to look for something bigger than what we have known thus far. What then is the hope God is inviting you to open your heart to?

WE CONFESS OUR NEED FOR HEALING & GRACE

Call to Confession

Corporate Confessional

All: God of new beginnings and promised hope, every day we stand on the threshold of your invitation to live into the promise of your new life.
Yet rarely do we take the invitation.
The list of reasons and explanations is long.
Yet the truth remains,
we are fearful to fully and completely give ourselves to you.
Forgive our sin, as you free us to the wonder of the Magi,
the love of Mary, the fortitude of Joseph,
and the simplicity of Jesus.
Free us from the weight of our past and the fears of our future,
so that we might be found in you now.
Come, Lord Jesus, we pray. Amen.

Personal Silent Confession

(Personal prayers for God's healing and redeeming peace)

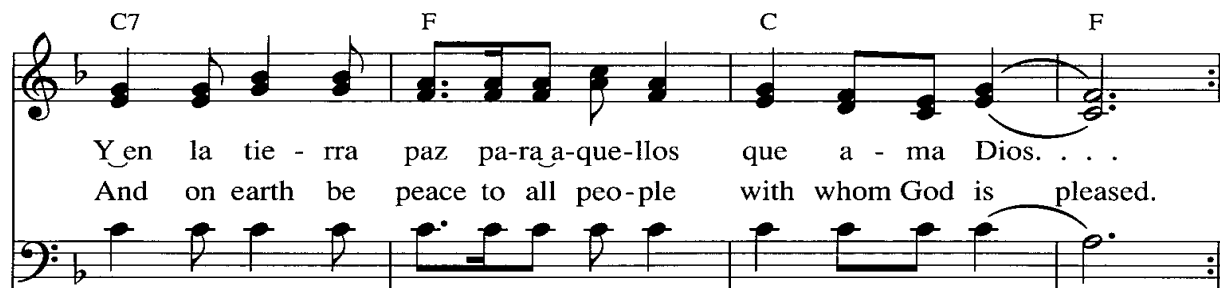

Assurance of Grace

Pastor: ...Already you are in the merciful and loving hands of God.
Already you have been set free to the glory of God!

People: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen!

Message for the Young & Young at Heart

(All youth are invited to come forward to the front steps. No Sunday School today.)

Prayer of Illumination

All: Holy One, in the time of Mary and Joseph you made your Word flesh in Jesus, the Christ, that we may witness your truth and behold your love.
Open our hearts anew, to see of your truth that may live of your love.
Speak Lord, for your servants are listening. Amen.

Epistle Lesson: Ephesians 1:3-14 (p. #192)

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love he predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will—to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and understanding, he made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, to be put into effect when the times reach their fulfillment—to bring unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ.

In him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will, in order that we, who were the first to put our hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory. And you also were included in Christ when you heard the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation. When you believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.

Gospel Lesson: Matthew 2:1-12 (p. #2)

After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem and asked, “Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him.”

When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. When he had called together all the people's chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Messiah was to be born. “In Bethlehem in Judea,” they replied, “for this is what the prophet has written:

“‘But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.’”

Then Herod called the Magi secretly and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search carefully for the child. As soon as you find him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship him.”

After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen when it rose went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw the star, they were overjoyed. On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their country by another route.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

Offertory: “We Three Kings” - John H. Hopkins, arr. by Lani Smith

(Please rise in body or spirit)

Offering Response (Unison)

The musical score is written for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in a unison setting. It is in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, using mostly quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are: "Praise God from whom all bless-ings flow; Praise God, all crea-tures here be-low; Praise God a-bove, you heaven-ly host: Praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost." The score is divided into two systems, each with two staves (Soprano/Alto and Tenor/Bass).

Praise God from whom all bless-ings flow; Praise God, all crea-tures here be-low;

Praise God a-bove, you heaven-ly host: Praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

Prayer of Dedication

All: Bountiful God, in the giving of your Son, you have given a gift that can never be repaid.
Yet, receive our gifts of joy and thanks.
Bless them we pray, as you deepen our walk with you and as you strengthen the ministries of this church, so that the light of your love
may shine all the more brightly within this world.
In Jesus' name, we pray.
Amen.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Communion Hymn: “What Child Is This” (p. #148)

Invitation

shall not hunger; you who believe in me shall never thirst”

People: This is the joyful feast of the people of God!

Men and women, youth and children, come from the east and the west, from the north and the south to gather about Christ’s table.

Pastor: Come all of you who hunger and are heavily laden, for it is Christ who meets us here that we may share in fullness of Christ’s body and presence.

Great Communion Prayer

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

Words of Institution

Prayer of Consecration

The Lord’s Prayer (sins)

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

(Please be seated)

Sharing of Elements – Communion by Intinction

(All who desire to unite their lives in discipleship to Christ are welcome to receive communion. Starting with the front pews, ushers will invite you to come forward to receive a piece of bread – gluten free option in the center - to dip into the chalice of red wine or white grape juice. After consuming the dipped bread, continue to the side aisle to return to your seat. To have the elements brought to you, inform the usher who will direct the pastor once all others have come forward.)

(Please rise in body or spirit)

Prayer of Thanksgiving

All: Glorious God, you have shared your presence with us through the gift of your Son and the holy splendor of this meal.
May our lives now radiate the glory of your hope, peace, joy, and love.
Inspired by your presence, may we give of ourselves in service to you and to this world, so that all may come to feast upon your goodness and know the wonder you have birthed to life in the Christ.
Glory be to you God, Most High. Amen.

First Sunday Fellowship – Following worship today, stay for a time of connection and light refreshments. This is a great opportunity to build new relationships and strengthen old ones. To ensure accessibility for all, the fellowship time, with its light refreshments, will be held in the sanctuary.

Clothing Collection for Hope Rescue and Lighthouse - Since 1894, Hope Rescue Mission has been a place of refuge for the homeless men, women, and children of Berks County, PA. They offer residential programs that people can work their way through to transition back into the community as productive and independent individuals. Guests of the Mission are offered spiritual enrichment opportunities where they can learn about the gospel and deepen their relationship with God. Guests are provided case advocacy where they are linked to supportive services and housing search supports.

Through the month of January, Bausman will collect all season clothing for both HOPE RESCUE and LIGHTHOUSE. Please bring items to church where drop boxes will be set up in the East Narthex through January 25. Items are coats, hats, scarves, gloves, shoes, towels, belts, purses and new men's underwear size small to XXXL.

Bausman Annual Soup Sale - The Fundraising Committee will hold their annual Soup Sale January 27-31, 2026. Soup options will be Chicken Noodle, Chicken Corn Noodle, Vegetable Beef, Italian Wedding Soups and Turkey Chili and will be $11/quart. As with Gladness Those of Old

William C. Dix, 1861; alt.

Matt. 2:1-12

1 As with glad-ness those of old did the guid-ing star be - hold;
 2 As with joy - ful steps they sped to that low - ly man-ger bed,
 3 As they of - fered gifts most rare at that man-ger plain and bare,
 4 Ho - ly Je - sus, ev - ery day keep us in the nar - row way;

As with joy they hailed its light, lead - ing on - ward, beam-ing bright;
 There to bend the knee be - fore One whom heaven and earth a - dore;
 So may we with ho - ly joy, pure and free from sin's al - loy,
 And when mor - tal things are past, bring our ran - somed souls at last

So, true Morn-ing Star, may we ev - er-more your splen-dor see.
 So may we with will - ing feet ev - er seek your mer - cy seat.
 All our cost - liest trea - sures bring, Christ, to you from whom they spring.
 Where they need no star to guide, where no clouds your glo - ry hide.

After reading the Epiphany gospel, William C. Dix penned this hymn. Dix, the manager of a marine insurance company, was also a gifted hymnwriter. Among his many fine contributions is "What Child Is This."

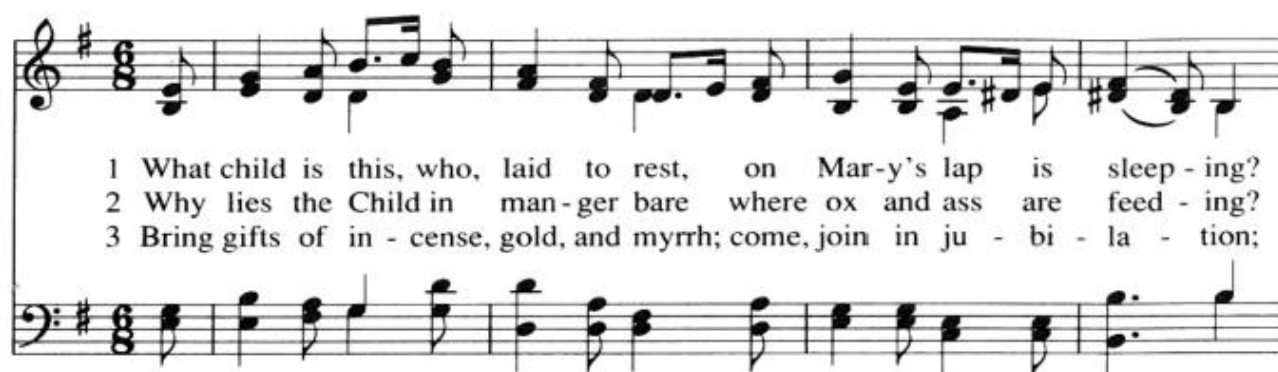

Tune: DIX 7.7.7.7.7.
 Conrad Kocher, 1838
 Adapt. William H. Monk, 1861

What Child Is This

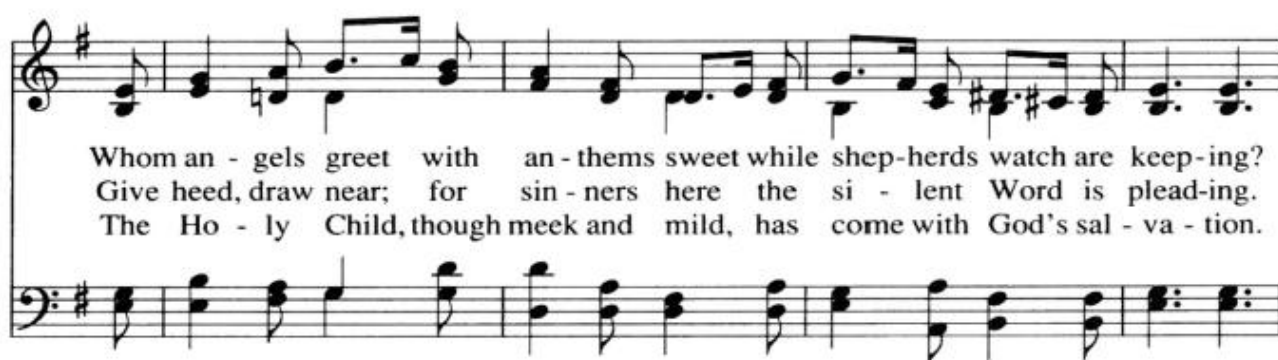

148

William C. Dix, 1865; alt.

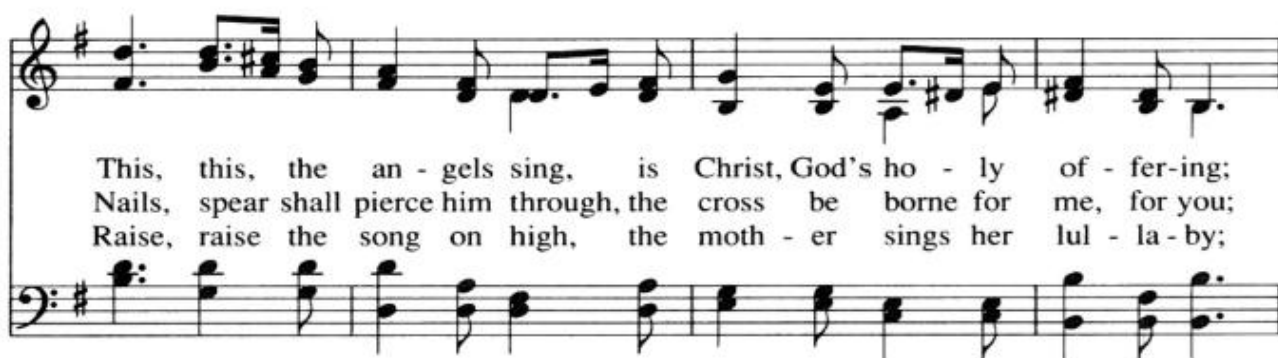

Luke 2:7-14, 25-32; Matt. 2:11; John 1:14;
John 19:16b-18, 34

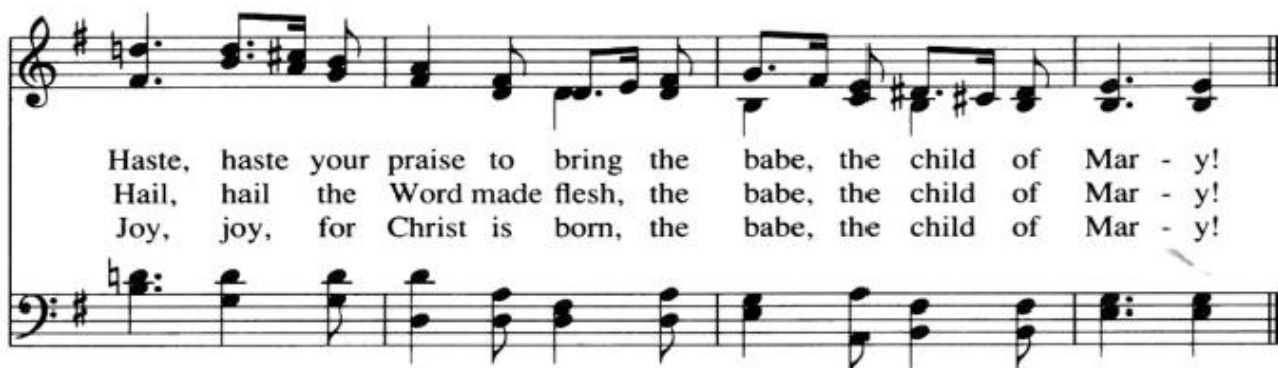

1 What child is this, who, laid to rest, on Mar-y's lap is sleep - ing?
2 Why lies the Child in man - ger bare where ox and ass are feed - ing?
3 Bring gifts of in - cense, gold, and myrrh; come, join in ju - bi - la - tion;

Whom an - gels greet with an - thems sweet while shep - herds watch are keep - ing?
Give heed, draw near; for sin - ners here the si - lent Word is plead - ing.
The Ho - ly Child, though meek and mild, has come with God's sal - va - tion.

This, this, the an - gels sing, is Christ, God's ho - ly of - fer - ing;
Nails, spear shall pierce him through, the cross be borne for me, for you;
Raise, raise the song on high, the moth - er sings her lul - la - by;

Haste, haste your praise to bring the babe, the child of Mar - y!
Hail, hail the Word made flesh, the babe, the child of Mar - y!
Joy, joy, for Christ is born, the babe, the child of Mar - y!

William Chatterton Dix, manager of an English marine insurance company, wrote a number of fine hymns. This one is always sung to the tune Greensleeves, which first appeared in England in 1580 and is mentioned in one of Shakespeare's plays.
