ORDER OF WORSHIP

WE GATHER TO BE GOD'S PEOPLE

Centering Thoughts: At the heart of God's joy is a deep and abiding care for those who are most vulnerable in our world. As such, God's joy challenges us to evaluate what we believe, and what we strive for, in seeking to experience heart sustaining joy. No wonder Jesus makes the statement in Matthew 11 "blessed is anyone who takes no offense in me." Because, to follow Jesus in his joy is to turn the world, and our lives, on its head.

Opening Chimes

Welcome & Announcements

Sharing of Christ's Peace

(Rise in body or spirit to share Christ's peace using customary forms of greeting or by using a peace sign. Please be seated once the prelude begins.)

And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in!

People: Our souls magnify the Lord

and our spirits rejoice in God our Savior.

Liturgist: God looks with favor on the lowliness of his servant.

People: God's mercy is for those who fear him

People: God fills the hungry, sends the rich away empty, helps his servant,
fulfilling his promises in mercy.

Liturgist: Men and women, young and old,
lift up their eyes to see the coming of God

People: With joy we wait and watch for the coming of our Lord.

Liturgist: For God's joy gives of life and proclaims of abundance, as it sets us, and this world, free to the kingdom that is to be.

People: O come, O come Emmanuel!

Liturgist: As God has come in Jesus, so God will come again,
in the fullness of time, wiping away every tear,
as we, and all things, are made new.

People: Our joy is the Lord our God, the creator of heaven and earth.

Liturgist: As we light this third candle of Advent,
may it proclaim the truth of the God who comes,
casting out all darkness, filling our hearts with joy of the One who comes in the name of the Lord.

(Lighting of the Candle of Joy)

Liturgist: Together, let us pray.

All: Saving God, as we deepen our journey to your advent,
in the coming of our Savior,
renew your joy within us, that we may see beyond the darkness
as you call us, here and now, to live by the light of your joy that has, and continues, to shine through the abiding presence of your Spirit.

Awaken us from our slumber, that we may live anew in your joy.
Come, Lord Jesus, we pray. Amen.

opening the eyes of the blind,

You declare joy is found in caring for the stranger and the immigrant,
and upholding the orphan and the widow.

Forgive us for the fetters that bind us, the sight that blinds us, and pride that keeps us from seeking the depth of your joy.

Forgive us for the fears that cause us to push others away,

and the apathy that turns us from the vulnerable and needy.
Lead us from the wickedness that brings ruin,
to the righteousness that leads us to you.
Come Lord Jesus, we pray. Amen.

WE LISTEN FOR GOD'S LIVING WORD

Prayer of Illumination

All: Almighty God, you open the eyes of the blind, you pierce the darkness with light, you set the prisoners free.
In the proclaiming and the receiving of your word
open now our eyes to see, enlighten our hearts to know, that we too may be set free to the joy of your truth.

Speak Lord, for your servants are listening. Amen.

Old Testament Lesson: Isaiah 35:1-10 (p. #663)

The desert and the parched land will be glad; the wilderness will rejoice and blossom. Like the crocus, it will burst into bloom; it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy. The glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon; they will see the glory of the Lord, the splendor of our God.

Strengthen the feeble hands, steady the knees that give way; say to those with fearful hearts, “Be strong, do not fear; your God will come, he will come with vengeance; with divine retribution he will come to save you.”

Then will the eyes of the blind be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy. Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert. The burning sand will become a pool, the thirsty ground bubbling springs. In the haunts where jackals once lay, grass and reeds and papyrus will grow.

And a highway will be there; it will be called the Way of Holiness; it will be for those who walk on that Way. The unclean will not journey on it; wicked fools will not go about on it. No lion will be there, nor any ravenous beast; they will not be found there. But only the redeemed will walk there, and those the Lord has rescued will return. They will enter Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Gospel Lesson: Matthew 11:2-15 (p. #11)

When John, who was in prison, heard about the deeds of the Messiah, he sent his disciples to ask him, “Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?”

Jesus replied, “Go back and report to John what you hear and see: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is proclaimed to the poor. Blessed is anyone who does not stumble on account of me.”

As John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swayed by the wind? If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings’ palaces. Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written: “I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.”

Truly I tell you, among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet whoever is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been subjected to violence, and violent people have been raiding it. For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. And if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come. Whoever has ears, let them hear.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

Children's Christmas Pageant – “Santa Discovers the First Christmas”

WE RESPOND TO GOD

(Please rise in body or spirit)

UCC Statement of Faith as Doxology

All: We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God,
and to your deeds we testify.

You call the worlds into being,
create persons in your own image,
and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior, you have come to us and shared our common lot,
conquering sin and death and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the Church of Jesus Christ,
binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church
to accept the cost and joy of discipleship,
to be your servants in the service to others,
to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil,

to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table,
to join him in his passion and victory.
You promise to all who trust you forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace,
courage in the struggle for justice and peace,
your presence in trial and rejoicing,
and eternal life in your realm which has no end.
Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you. Amen.
